Travelex Insurance Services Wins Virtuoso's 2024 Top-Producing Specialty Partner Award

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 4, 2025 — Travelex Insurance Services Inc., a leader in the travel insurance industry known for its award-winning customer care, has been honored with Virtuoso's 2024 Top-Producing Specialty Partner Award (U.S.) for the second consecutive year. This prestigious recognition highlights Travelex's commitment to excellence in service and its strong performance within the highly competitive travel insurance market.

Virtuoso, the leading global network specializing in luxury and experiential travel, introduced its regional awards at the U.S. Forum last year. Travelex was the first recipient of the award in the Top-Producing Specialty Partner category, which recognizes the partner with the highest overall sales in its respective category.

"Travelex is excited to win this award for the second year. We thank Virtuoso, and we thank our Virtuoso travel agency and advisor partners for helping us achieve it," said Will Nihan, president and CEO of Travelex. "We thank you for trusting us with your clients. We value our Virtuoso partnership over the last 27 years, and we look forward to protecting many more Virtuoso travelers in the years to come."

Travelex was recognized alongside Virtuoso's most esteemed U.S. travel agencies, advisors, and preferred partners. The winners represent the highest standard in their categories, based on sales volume and engagement within the Virtuoso network.

With a strong foundation in customer service, Travelex continues to set itself apart in the travel insurance space by providing industry-leading support and innovative solutions for our travelers and our partners.

"This latest award further cements Travelex's reputation as a trusted travel insurance partner to the luxury travel sector," Nihan said.
